

Apply Now for Energy, Heating Assistance

through the Indiana Housing & Community Development Authority's Low-Income Home Assistance Program.

With colder temperatures here and heating costs on the rise, there is assistance available for Hoosiers struggling to pay their bills.

The Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority's Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program provides a one-time, annual benefit to help eligible Hoosiers with home energy payments. Applications are now open and will be accepted through April 20, 2026.

*For more information and how to apply,
please click here.*